

INITIATING CONVERSATION: ASKING QUESTIONS

Here are some opening questions. Present only 4-5 at a time. After reviewing the list, brainstorm a new one especially as special events occur at school.

Please practice and use role playing for the Q & A. It is important to rehearse asking the question and following up with an appropriate response.

Ending the conversation is important too. So we to practice exiting a conversation by saying; Thanks. OK..see you later. Bye. But let's start here:

Present the task:

1. Pick a person is NOT busy.
2. Orient to Person: Turn body & Look at face
3. ASK 1 or 2 Questions. Interview & starting a conversation

Possible Opening Questions

Did you see Minions, Avengers, Frozen, (or current popular movies)?

Do you go to _____ (name of after school activity or program)?

What are you going to play at recess?

When do we go to computer next?

What video games do you have at home?

Do you have any pets?

Have you gone to LEGOLAND?

Are we going to the library today?

What book are you reading?

Do you stay after school?

Who do you eat with in lunch?

Cool shoes...where did you get them?

Are you going somewhere for spring break?

What did you do this summer?

Do you have plans for winter break?

Do you like going to the beach?

